

August 28, 2017

Place of Hope receives 100 backpacks, supplies for new school year

By Elissa Rosen · Contact Reporter
Sun Sentinel

Abbot Downing team members with their Place of Hope donation. (Submitted photo)

Foster children at Place of Hope went back to school in style.

Employees from Abbot Downing of Palm Beach partnered with the children's organization for the second consecutive year. One-hundred new backpacks and more than $4,500 for supplies, uniforms and books were donated.

Volunteers from the wealth management firm visited Place of Hope's Palm Beach Gardens campus to fill the backpacks with new supplies.